Virtual

One of many FaceTime calls we use to stay connected and share our daily lives when we are not physically together. We call daily for many hours when we are not in the same country. We try to stay productive sometimes by working and studying, and other times we spend all night talking about everything.

Kalil got me a membership at his gym and we went to work out with his best friend (Axel Caputo).

Buenos Aires, Argentina.

I helped Kalil and his mom make the prizes for this raffle. We spent the morning decorating baskets of items from his shop, like chocolate, spices, and nuts, with decorative bows and ribbons. We are standing in front of his family business with members of the local community in his neighborhood. Pictured with his family members: Hugo Vasques, Nayla Vasques Movia and Silvia Movia.

Buenos Aires, Argentina

This is the day Kalil proposed to me. He took me to the same restaurant that we had our first date in Argentina and had his family act like they were just taking normal pictures of us. Using many lyrics of some of our favorite songs, like “Love Story” by Taylor Swift, he got on one knee and asked me to marry him. I said yes!

Buenos Aires, Argentina

This is us in Christmas' Eve, at Kalil's Uncle's house, doing Karaoke to our favorite song 'Love Story – Taylor Swift' (that's the same song he used to propose).

It was a big party, so much fun. You can see Kalil's cousin (Agustina Marques) in the background. I loved the atmosphere at this party, it is very different than the typical American Christmas celebration. There was music, and dancing, and of course karaoke! This was probably one of my favorite Christmas experiences yet.

This is us watching the sunrise by the river after the Christmas party.

December 31, 2025

Buenos Aires, Argentina

This is us at Kalil's Uncle's again, this time it was New Year's Eve. You can see his dad being funny. We enjoyed another evening just like Christmas eve!

January 4, 2026

Miramar, Buenos Aires, Argentina

After enjoying New Year together, we went to Kalil's house on the beach with his family. This was the first time in my life I had been to a cold beach like this. The waves were absolutely ginormous. I love everything about the ocean and the water. This was one of my favorite experiences.
